

I think it is a very bad idea to let companies call when we have a no call law that works fine. If I want a morgage or whatever I want the option of calling them not vise versa.